

Ahmet's English Homework

Vocabulary · Collocations · Conditionals · Discourse Markers · Writing

Estimated time: 1.5 hours Teacher: Khan Ahsan
Date: April 2026 Level: B1+ / B2

- (1) Learn 10 new vocabulary words — with a focus on education & technology
- (2) Master 5 collocations — word combinations that sound natural
- (3) Practise Second Conditionals — for hypothetical situations
- (4) Use discourse markers — to connect your ideas like a native speaker
- (5) Write one structured paragraph using everything you have learned

PART A Vocabulary (30 min)

A1 — 10 New Words

Study each word carefully. These words come from IELTS topics: education, technology, and society.

primary

access (n/v)	Not every student has access to the internet at home.	the ability to use or enter something essential (adj)	Good communication skills are essential in any job.	absolutely necessary; extremely important challenge (n)	One of the biggest challenges of remote work is staying focused.	a difficult situation that requires effort replace (v)	Many people fear that robots will replace human workers.	to take the place of something or someone significant (adj)	There has been a significant increase in online learning.	large and important enough to notice benefit (n/v)	Working from home can benefit employees and employers.	an advantage; to gain an advantage
rely on (v)	We rely on technology too much in our daily lives.	to depend on something or someone consequence (n)	One consequence of social media is reduced face-to-face contact.	a result or effect of an action contribute to (v)	Exercise can contribute to better mental health.	to help cause or produce something
address (v)	The government needs to address the problem of youth unemployment.	to deal with a problem or situation

A2 — Fill in the Blanks

Use the words from the table above. Use the correct form of the word.

1. It is _____ for students to develop critical thinking skills at school.

2. Many small businesses _____ government support during the pandemic.
3. The rapid growth of e-commerce has had a _____ impact on traditional retail.
4. One serious _____ of dropping out of school is difficulty finding stable work.
5. Governments must _____ the issue of unequal _____ to quality education.
6. Learning a second language can _____ to your personal and professional development.
7. Do you think technology will ever completely _____ teachers in the classroom?
8. Lack of sleep is one of the biggest _____ students face during exam periods.

A3 — Match the Antonyms

Draw a line to match each word on the left with its opposite (antonym) on the right.

- | | |
|----------------|--------------------|
| 1. essential | a. advantage |
| 2. significant | b. unnecessary |
| 3. consequence | c. ignore |
| 4. address | d. trivial / minor |
| 5. challenge | e. cause |

A4 — Vocabulary in Context

Write your own sentence using each word. Think about IELTS topics.

1. rely on: _____
2. significant: _____
3. contribute to: _____

PART B Collocations — Sounding Natural (20 min)

Remember

A collocation is a pair (or group) of words that naturally go together. Using collocations makes your English sound much more fluent.

Example: We say make a decision — NOT do a decision.

B1 — 5 Key Collocations to Learn

primary

make a difference	Good teachers can make a real difference in a child's life.	NOT "do a difference" raise awareness	Campaigns can help raise awareness about climate change.	NOT "increase awareness" meet a deadline	It is important to meet your deadlines at work.	NOT "reach a deadline" take responsibility	Companies should take responsibility for their carbon emissions.	NOT "make responsibility"
play a role	Parents play a crucial role in a child's education.	NOT "do a role"

B2 — Complete with the Correct Verb

Choose the correct verb: make / raise / meet / take / play

1. Teachers _____ a vital role in shaping young people's values.
2. Social media can _____ awareness of important social issues.
3. It can be stressful when you are unable to _____ a deadline at work.
4. Governments must _____ responsibility for reducing pollution.
5. Even small changes in your daily habits can _____ a big difference.

B3 — Spot the Error

Each sentence has a collocation mistake. Correct it on the line.

1. The charity worked hard to do awareness about poverty.

Correct: _____

2. She always does a difference in the lives of her students.

Correct: _____

3. He failed to reach the deadline and lost his job.

Correct: _____

PART C Grammar — Second Conditionals (25 min)

Remember

Second Conditional = imaginary / hypothetical situations in the present or future.

Structure: If + past simple, ... would + base verb

Examples:

If I had more time, I would study every day. (but I don't have time now)

If the government invested in schools, students would benefit greatly.

Common mistake:

✗ If I would have time, I would study. ← WRONG

✓ If I had time, I would study. ← CORRECT

C1 — Complete the Sentences

Use the verbs in brackets in the correct form.

1. If every child _____ (have) access to quality education, the world _____ (be) a more equal place.
2. If I _____ (not / rely on) social media so much, I _____ (spend) more time reading.
3. If companies _____ (take) more responsibility, they _____ (contribute to) a cleaner environment.
4. If the government _____ (address) youth unemployment, young people _____ (have) more opportunities.

C2 — Write Your Own Conditionals

Complete these sentences with your own ideas.

1. If I could change one thing about education in Turkey, I would _____
2. If robots replaced all factory workers, _____
3. If people relied less on their phones, _____

C3 — Correct the Mistakes

Each sentence has a grammar error. Write the corrected sentence on the line.

1. If I would have more money, I would travel the world.
Correct: _____
2. If governments will invest in green energy, they would reduce pollution.
Correct: _____
3. If I knew the answer, I would told you immediately.
Correct: _____

PART D Discourse Markers — Connecting Your Ideas (15 min)

Remember

Discourse markers are words and phrases that connect your ideas.

They show the relationship between sentences and make your speaking and writing much more fluent.

Native speakers use them constantly — and so should you!

D1 — 5 Discourse Markers to Learn

primary

Furthermore, ...	Online shopping is convenient. Furthermore , it saves time.	adds another point
However, ...	Technology has many benefits. However , it also has risks.	shows contrast
As a result, ...	Many shops closed. As a result , unemployment rose.	shows a consequence
In addition, ...	The course was affordable. In addition , it was very practical.	adds information
On the other hand, ...	Some people prefer cities. On the other hand , others love rural life.	shows the other side

D2 — Choose the Best Marker

Choose the correct discourse marker to complete each sentence.

1. Technology has made communication faster. _____, it has reduced the quality of face-to-face relationships. (However / Furthermore)
2. Many young people are moving to cities for work. _____, city populations are growing rapidly. (As a result / On the other hand)
3. Learning a new language improves your job prospects. _____, it is great for your brain. (In addition / However)
4. Some people believe technology replaces human connection. _____, others argue it brings people closer together. (Furthermore / On the other hand)

D3 — Join the Sentences

Join the two sentences using a discourse marker. Write the full sentence.

1. Remote work is becoming popular. It can be lonely for some employees.

2. Governments should invest in public transport. They should reduce taxes on electric cars.

PART E Writing Practice (20 min)

Your Writing Task

Tip

Before you write, plan! Spend 2 minutes thinking about:

- Your main idea (topic sentence)
- 2–3 supporting points
- A conclusion sentence

Write 6–9 sentences about one of the topics below. Use at least:

- ▶ 3 vocabulary words from Part A
- ▶ 1 collocation from Part B
- ▶ 1 second conditional sentence from Part C
- ▶ 2 discourse markers from Part D
- ▶ 1 hedging phrase from Lesson 5 (e.g. I think / It seems to me that ...)

Choose one topic:

1. Should technology be used more in schools and universities?
2. What are the advantages and disadvantages of working from home?
3. How can governments encourage young people to stay in education longer?

Topic I chose: _____

Excellent work, Ahmet!

Remember: every mistake is a step forward. Keep going!

See you in the next lesson — Khan