

AHK Academy English Homework: A2 Level

Using “Since” and “For”

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

Hello, AYSE! This homework is about the words “since” and “for” in English. We use them to talk about time, especially with the present perfect tense (like “have lived” or “has worked”). Let’s learn step by step!

Part 1: Explanation

In English, “since” and “for” help us describe how long something has been happening. They are often used with verbs in the present perfect form.

Used with a period of time (how long?)

Examples:

- I have studied English for two years.
- She has lived in this city for a month.
- We have waited for three hours.

Since: Used with a starting point (from when?)

Examples:

- He has worked here since 2019.
- They have been friends since last summer.
- I have known her since Monday.

Remember:

“For” answers → How long?

“Since” answers → From when?

Common mistake: Never say “since two years” or “for 2020.”
