Student: Ahmet (Gürkan)
Date: March 3, 2026
Estimated Time: 1 hour
Next Lesson: Thursday

Hi Ahmet,

What a session! You did fantastic work today — not only did you review Homework 1 brilliantly, but you explained pavement engineering with such depth and confidence. Meeting Taner and speaking naturally with him showed how far your English has already come. Let's build on that momentum with this homework!

1 Part 1: Grammar Corrections (20 minutes)

In today's class, we corrected some grammar mistakes together. Let's practise using the correct forms.

Instructions: For each sentence, (a) identify the mistake, (b) write the corrected version, and (c) write one new original sentence using the correct grammar.

Grammar Point 1: Active vs Passive — 'got injured'

✓ X Your sentence: "My left knee was got injured in 2020."

■ Corrected: "My left knee got injured in 2020." OR "My left knee was injured in 2020."

💡 Remember: Don't combine 'was' + 'got'. Use one or the other.

Your new sentence: I made my son look for the key.
I got the car repaired.

Grammar Point 2: 'They got me to do something' vs 'They arranged for me'

✗ Your sentence: "They arrange for me to solve a complex problem."

■ Better options:

- "They got me to solve a complex problem."
- "They assigned me a complex problem to solve."
- "They entrusted me with solving a complex problem."
- "They put me in charge of solving a complex problem."

to assign - atamak
to entrust - tevdi etmek

Write a sentence using one of these structures:

my manager entrusted me with being a team leader for this complex problem.

Grammar Point 3: Adverbs — 'comfortably' (not 'comfortable')✗ Error: "...too high to drive in comfortable."■ Correct: "...too high to drive comfortably."After a verb (drive, run, walk, work...) → use an adverb (-ly). Not an adjective.

Write a sentence using 'comfortably':

Drives want to travel by car comfortablyNowadays we need to drive more comfortably than as in the future?Grammar Point 4: Noun vs Verb — 'project' (PRO-ject) vs 'project' (pro-JECT)*Remember: When 'project' is a noun (a plan or task), stress the first syllable: PRO-ject. When it is a verb (to estimate or show), stress the second syllable: pro-JECT.

In your writing, use the correct form:

- KGM is responsible for projecting, constructing, and maintaining roads. (verb)
- KGM is responsible for the projection, construction, and maintenance of roads. (noun)

⇒ project!

Write one sentence about KGM using the noun or verb form of 'project':

While I was working for KGM I designed diverse projects.

projecting a suspension bridge needs experienced designers.

2 Part 2: Opinion Writing — Government Work vs. Running Your Own Business (20 minutes)

In today's session, you and Taner had a great discussion about working for the government versus running your own company. You shared your own experience of retiring and starting Geopave with your wife. Now let's practise writing your opinions!

Instructions: Write two short paragraphs (3–4 sentences each). Use the prompts below.

Paragraph 1: What are the advantages of working for yourself? Use your own experience.

Paragraph 2: What advice would you give to someone like Taner who wants to start their own company one day?

Try to use phrases like: In my opinion... / From my experience... / I would advise... / One of the challenges is... / However, the benefit is...

Paragraph 1: The advantages of working for myself are making decisions myself, taking responsibilities and facing the results of them. If you want to start your own company you only need to be awareness and have courage to do it. Trust yourself! In my opinion one of the challenges is thinking much but nothing do it about it.

Paragraph 2:

3 Part 3: Speaking Preparation — Sharing Your Opinions (20 minutes)

In today's session, you discussed your career, your city, Turkey's industries, and the value of sharing knowledge. In the next class, we will practise talking about yourself and your opinions on these topics. Answer the questions below to prepare!

Instructions: Answer each question in 3–5 sentences. Write naturally, as if you are speaking to someone you just met. Don't worry about being perfect; focus on expressing your ideas clearly.

Question 1: Turkey has become strong in areas like shipbuilding and defence. Why do you think Turkey has developed well in these industries?

Türkiye has already strong in shipbuilding and defence. We have well educated engineers like Tamer. If we give them an opportunity to build or design a competitive ship and provide technological working area. They will be successful in a short time.

Question 2: You mentioned that getting good data from the Turkish government is very difficult. Why do you think this is? What are the consequences for engineers and researchers?

From my experience organization's memory comes from their reliable datas. The data need to not only collect but also transform to information. I believe every government organization have lot of data but not usable information. Executives don't want to share the information due to lack of the trust themselves.

Question 3: Do you agree that time is more important than money? Give an example from your own work or life to support your answer.

We have limited time to live in the world. So time is a priceless value for people. In my opinion earning money is necessity but not be an aim for our life. You need time to spend money. I believe that favor and respect in relationship between people are more important than saving more money. At the end of the day it is not possible to take away money with you when you passed away. But you can take away good memories with you.

Question 4: You believe that sharing information is good for both sides. Can you think of a time when sharing your knowledge helped you learn something new? Tell the story in a few sentences.

"Life is wonderful if you share something." Whenever I share my experiences I improve myself because of getting new ideas from someone even from a child. You can't know everything but you can share the information you have. If you open the criticism you can improve yourself.
