Task: Write 5 sentences using any of these expressions in your own business situations.

Part 2 – Role-Play Speaking Task

Imagine you are a sales manager and a customer complains about receiving the wrong product. Record a short 2-minute voice note or write a short dialogue (6–8 lines) between you and the customer.

Example start:

Customer: Hello, I received the wrong furniture set.

Ihsan: I completely understand your concern, sir. Let me check your order details right away.

Part 3 – Writing Task

Write a short professional email (120–150 words) replying to this complaint:

Dear Ihsan,

We received our outdoor furniture, but one table was damaged during delivery. Please look into this issue urgently.

Regards,

Mr. Smith

Include:

- An apology
- A promise to solve the issue
- A professional closing

Example closing lines:

Thank you for your patience and understanding.

We look forward to resolving this matter quickly.

Part 4 – Reflection

Answer these two questions briefly (2–3 sentences each):

1. What is the most polite way to handle an angry customer?
 2. Why is it important to stay calm when dealing with complaints?

Part 5 – Speaking Recording Task

Task: Record yourself (1–2 minutes) speaking about this situation:

A customer received a damaged outdoor furniture set and is very upset. As a sales manager, how will you respond to calm them down and solve the problem?

Instructions:

1. Begin with a greeting.
2. Apologize for the issue.
3. Offer a solution (refund, replacement, etc.).
4. End politely with appreciation.

Example Script:

Good afternoon, Mr. Smith.

I'm very sorry to hear about the damaged table you received. I completely understand how frustrating this must be.

I'll arrange a replacement immediately and make sure the delivery is handled carefully this time.

Thank you for bringing this to our attention, and please accept our sincere apologies for the inconvenience.

Submission: Record your answer using your phone's voice recorder or send it as a WhatsApp voice note.
