Professional English for Sales Managers

Teacher: AHSAN — Student: Ihsan

Topic: Debate & Persuasion in Business English

1. Teaching Section – Business Debate Language

A. Expressing Opinions Confidently

- From a sales perspective, I believe...
- It's clear that our clients value...
- If we look at the data, it's obvious that...
- My position is that we should focus on...

B. Agreeing Professionally

- I completely agree — that's a strong insight.
- You're absolutely right, especially when you mention...
- That aligns perfectly with our sales goals.

C. Diplomatic Disagreement

- I understand your concern, but we might consider...
- That's an interesting point; however, from a customer's side...
- I see where you're coming from, though the data suggests otherwise.
- I'm afraid I have a slightly different take on that.

D. Persuasive Phrases

- What if we looked at it from another angle?
- Let's consider the potential impact on revenue.
- To put it simply, this strategy drives results.
- The evidence strongly supports this approach.

2. Practice Exercises

A. Fill in the Blanks

Use the best debate phrase for each situation.

1. _____, we should prioritize long-term clients rather than quick deals.
2. _____, but our customer feedback shows a different trend.
3. _____, this proposal could increase conversion rates.
4. _____, I believe our focus should shift to digital channels.
5. _____, that approach fits perfectly with our market strategy.

B. Role-Play / Speaking Practice

Imagine you are in a business meeting.

Situation 1:

Your colleague says, “We should lower prices to increase sales.”

Respond using one polite disagreement phrase and one persuasive phrase.

Situation 2:

A client says, “I don’t think your product is worth the price.”

Respond professionally using one diplomatic disagreement and one persuasive statement.

3. Homework Assignment

Task: Write an email or meeting note (120–150 words) on the topic:

Convincing your team to adopt a new sales strategy.

Your writing must include:

- One polite disagreement
- One persuasive argument
- One clear conclusion

4. Bonus Task (Optional)

Watch the following TED Talk on negotiation and persuasion: The Walk from No to Yes — William Ury \(TED Talk\)

After watching, write down 3 advanced expressions the speaker uses to disagree or persuade.

Remember: In business English, sounding polite is just as powerful as being persuasive.

“Strong arguments don’t need strong tones.” – Teacher AHSAN
