

A2 Lesson Plan & Worksheet

Skill Focus: Using the Past Tense in General and Business English

Warm-up (10 minutes)

■ Objective: Activate background knowledge and get students thinking in the past tense.

- Ask students simple questions in present tense, then guide them to answer in past tense.

Examples:

- What do you usually eat for breakfast? → Yesterday, what did you eat for breakfast?
- Where do you usually work? → Where did you work before?

Main Lesson (30 minutes)

■ Objective: Learn how to form and use past simple tense.

1. Regular verbs: add -ed
 - work → worked, play → played, watch → watched
2. Irregular verbs: change form
 - go → went, have → had, buy → bought, meet → met
3. Negative form: did not (didn't) + base verb
 - I didn't work yesterday. She didn't go to the meeting.
4. Questions: Did + subject + base verb?
 - Did you finish the report? Did they travel last week?

Practice (30 minutes)

■ Objective: Practice forming past tense sentences.

Exercise 1: Change into the past tense

- a) I work in an office. → _____
- b) We play football every weekend. → _____
- c) She goes to school every day. → _____

Exercise 2: Business English Practice

Complete with the correct past tense verb:

Sentence	Answer
Yesterday, I (send) an email to my manager.	_____
We (have) a meeting last Monday.	_____
They (not finish) the project on time.	_____
Did you (attend) the conference last year?	_____

Exercise 3: Correct the mistake

- a) She go to the office yesterday. → _____
- b) They didn't went to the party. → _____
- c) Did you watched the movie? → _____

Final Task (20 minutes)

■ Objective: Use past tense freely in communication.

Choose ONE of the following tasks:

1. Storytelling: Tell your partner about what you did last weekend.
2. Business roleplay: Imagine you are at work. Explain what tasks you finished yesterday.
3. Writing task: Write a short email to your boss about what you did last week.

Wrap-up (5 minutes)

- Review the most common regular and irregular verbs.
- Remind students: In business and daily life, past tense is essential for reports, conversations, and storytelling.
