Homework Topic: Homonyms, Homophones, Ambiguous Sentences & Word Stress

Submission Date: 7 Days from Now

Part A – Explanation

1. Homonyms

Homonyms are words that have the same spelling or pronunciation but different meanings. Example:

- Bat (the animal) vs. Bat (used in baseball)

2. Homophones

Homophones are words that sound the same but have different meanings and spellings. Example:

- Sea and See
- Right and Write

3. Ambiguous (Not Clear) Sentences

Ambiguous sentences have more than one possible meaning. They can confuse the reader or listener. Example:

- “I saw the man with the telescope.” (Did I use the telescope, or did the man have the telescope?)

4. Stress and Meaning

Changing the stress (the word or syllable you emphasize) can completely change the meaning. Example:

- I didn't say he stole the money. Depending on which word is stressed, the meaning changes:
 - I didn't say he stole the money. → Someone else did.
 - I didn't say he stole the money. → I only thought it.
 - I didn't say he stole the money. → Maybe he borrowed it.
