

AHK Academy – Phrasal Verbs Lesson

AHK Academy

Introduction

Phrasal verbs are verbs combined with prepositions or adverbs that create a new meaning. They are very common in English and often used in daily conversations.

For example:

- fill in – to complete a form or document. Example: Please fill in this application form.
- take off – when an airplane leaves the ground or removing something (like clothes). Example: The plane takes off at 5 p.m.
- give up – to stop trying or quit. Example: Don't give up! You can do it.
- look up – to search for information. Example: I didn't know the word, so I looked it up in a dictionary.

Exercise 1 – Fill in the blanks

Complete the sentences with the correct phrasal verb from the box: be through, go on, fill in, take off, stay out, speak up

1. Could you _____ this application form, please?
2. I'll never talk to you again. We _____!
3. If you don't _____, we can't hear you.
4. I'm tired because I _____ too late last night.
5. The plane _____ late because of the bad weather.

Exercise 2 – Match with synonyms

Match the phrasal verbs with their correct meaning:

Phrasal Verb	Meaning
put off	a. cancel
call off	b. switch off
look up	c. postpone
go off	d. continue
carry on	e. explode
turn off	f. check

Exercise 3 – Speaking Homework

Practice speaking with your partner or record yourself. Use the following prompts:

1. Use fill in in a sentence about a form or document.
2. Use take off in a sentence about traveling or removing clothes.
3. Use give up in a motivational sentence.
4. Use look up in a sentence about searching for information.

Extra Task: Try to have a short 3-minute conversation with a friend using at least 5 phrasal verbs from today's lesson.

Tips for Speaking

- Speak clearly and slowly.
- Emphasize the phrasal verb in each sentence.
- Make sure the meaning is clear in your context.
