

Formal vs. Informal English for Sales Managers

15-Minute Challenge

Due Date: October 9, 2025

Instructions:

- Complete each section quickly and accurately within 15 minutes.
- Write your answers in the provided spaces.
- Focus on sales-related communication scenarios.
- Submit the completed worksheet to your instructor by October 9, 2025.

1. Warm-up Identify the Style (2 min)

Label each sentence as Formal or Informal:

1. Can you send me the latest product catalog? _____
2. I would appreciate it if you could provide the latest product catalog. _____
3. Hey, did you get my email about the order? _____
4. I am following up regarding our discussion about the order. _____

2. Vocabulary Drill (4 min)

Write the formal equivalent of these informal sales terms:

1. Deal: _____
2. Boss: _____
3. Gonna: _____
4. Get: _____
5. Ask: _____

Write the informal equivalent of these formal sales terms:

6. Agreement: _____
7. Supervisor: _____
8. Going to: _____
9. Obtain: _____
10. Request: _____

3. Sentence Transformation (4 min)

3.1 Informal to Formal

Rewrite these sentences in a formal tone:

1. Can you send me the order details?

2. Im gonna talk to the boss about the client request.

3. Sorry, I cant attend the meeting.

3.2 Formal to Informal

Rewrite these sentences in an informal tone:

1. I would appreciate it if you could provide the sales report by tomorrow.

2. I am unable to attend the client meeting at the scheduled time.

3. I am writing to request further information about your product line.

4. Role-Play Scenarios (3 min)

Write one formal and one informal sentence for each sales scenario:

1. Following up with a client about a pending order:

Formal: _____

Informal: _____

2. Inviting a colleague to a sales meeting:

Formal: _____

Informal: _____

3. Asking your manager for approval on a discount:

Formal: _____

Informal: _____

5. Rapid Fire Quiz (2 min)

For each sentence, mark F (Formal) or I (Informal) and provide an alternative version:

1. Could you clarify the details of the contract? []

Alternative: _____

2. Gonna send the invoice later, okay? []

Alternative: _____

3. I regret to inform you that the shipment will be delayed. []

Alternative: _____

4. Hey! Did the client call you back? []

Alternative: _____

6. Reflection (Optional)

List three new sales-related words or phrases you learned today and indicate if you will use them in formal (F) or informal (I) situations:

1. _____ F/I:

2. _____ F/I:

3. _____ F/I: _____