3. contribute to: A professor works at METU contributed to discover a new technology on asphalt industry.

PART B Collocations — Sounding Natural (20 min)

Remember

A collocation is a pair (or group) of words that naturally go together. Using collocations makes your English sound much more fluent.

Example: We say make a decision — NOT do a decision.

B1 — 5 Key Collocations to Learn

primary

make a difference	Good teachers can make a real difference in a child's life.	NOT "do a difference"
raise awareness ^{FAKKNOWALIK}	Campaigns can help raise awareness about climate change.	NOT "increase awareness"
meet a deadline	It is important to meet your deadlines at work.	NOT "reach a deadline"
take responsibility	Companies should take responsibility for their carbon emissions.	NOT "make responsibility"
play a role	Parents play a crucial role in a child's education.	NOT "do a role"

B2 — Complete with the Correct Verb

Choose the correct verb: make / raise / meet / take / play

- Teachers play a vital role in shaping young people's values.
- Social media can raise awareness of important social issues.
- It can be stressful when you are unable to meet a deadline at work.
- Governments must take responsibility for reducing pollution.

PART C Grammar — Second Conditionals (25 min)

Remember

Second Conditional = imaginary / hypothetical situations in the present or future.

Structure: If + past simple, ... would + base verb

Examples:

If I had more time, I would study every day. (but I don't have time now)

If the government invested in schools, students would benefit greatly.

Common mistake:

× If I would have time, I would study. ← WRONG

✓ If I had time, I would study. ← CORRECT

C1 — Complete the Sentences

Use the verbs in brackets in the correct form.

Correct: If governments invested in green energy, they would reduce pollution
3. If I knew the answer, I would told you immediately.
Correct: If I knew the answer, I would tell you immediately.

PART D Discourse Markers — Connecting Your Ideas (15 min)

Remember

Discourse markers are words and phrases that connect your ideas.

They show the relationship between sentences and make your speaking and writing much more fluent. ✓

Native speakers use them constantly — and so should you! ✓

D1 — 5 Discourse Markers to Learn

primary

+	Furthermore, ...	Online shopping is convenient. Furthermore , it saves time.	adds another point
⤵	However, ...	Technology has many benefits. However , it also has risks.	shows contrast
➤	As a result, ...	Many shops closed. As a result , unemployment rose. 'rise/rose/risen	shows a consequence
+	In addition, ...	The course was affordable. In addition , it was very practical.	adds information
✗	On the other hand, ...	Some people prefer cities. On the other hand , others love rural life.	shows the other side

D2 — Choose the Best Marker

Choose the correct discourse marker to complete each sentence.

- Technology has made communication faster. However, it has reduced the quality of face-to-face relationships. (However / Furthermore)
- Many young people are moving to cities for work. As a result, city populations are growing rapidly. (As a result / On the other hand)
- Learning a new language improves your job prospects. In addition, it is great for your brain. (In addition / However)
- Some people believe technology replaces human connection. On the other hand, others argue it brings people closer together. (Furthermore / On the other hand)

D3 — Join the Sentences

Join the two sentences using a discourse marker. Write the full sentence.

- Remote work is becoming popular. It can be lonely for some employees.*
Remote work is becoming popular, as a result it can be lonely for some employees.
- Governments should invest in public transport. They should reduce taxes on electric cars.*
Governments should invest in public transport, in addition they should reduce taxes on electric cars.

PART E Writing Practice (20 min)

Your Writing Task

Tip

Before you write, plan! Spend 2 minutes thinking about:

- Your main idea (topic sentence)
- 2-3 supporting points
- A conclusion sentence

Write 6-9 sentences about one of the topics below. Use at least:

- ▶ 3 vocabulary words from Part A
- ▶ 1 collocation from Part B
- ▶ 1 second conditional sentence from Part C
- ▶ 2 discourse markers from Part D
- ▶ 1 hedging phrase from Lesson 5 (e.g. I think / It seems to me that ...)

Choose one topic:

1. Should technology be used more in schools and universities?
2. What are the advantages and disadvantages of working from home?
3. How can governments encourage young people to stay in education longer?

Topic I chose: How can governments encourage young people to stay in education longer?

Governments have several significant tools to keep young people in education longer. It seems to me that They should give grants and bursaries to students as a result the cost of staying in school may reduce. In addition Governments should address that increasing work-based learning system. Furthermore If students had an opportunity for free transport. They would spend less money to transport to school.

In conclusion, Governments should play an effective role and take responsibility to improve education system for the students to stay in education longer.
